

THE 100 BOOK CLUB

WITH UPPER SANDUSKY COMMUNITY LIBRARY

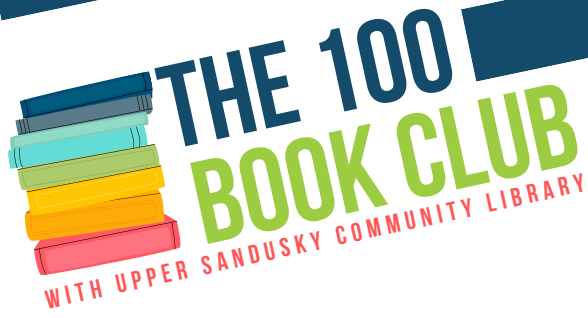

WHAT IS THE 100 BOOK CLUB?

The 100 Book Club is a prestigious reader club at Upper Sandusky Community Library. Readers will join the Eight-Point-Three Challenge with a goal to read 100 books in a year's timeframe, or 8.3 books per month. If they meet that goal they will be inducted into the 100 Book Club.

RULES

- The challenge is open to readers ages 6+.
- Readers can sign up for the Eight-Point-Three Challenge anytime throughout the year.
- Readers must read or listen to the book themselves.
- Only titles read between June 1, 2023 (the start of the summer reading program) and May 31, 2024 count toward the 100-book goal.
- A title can only be counted once within the year timeframe.
- All book formats count (ex. physical, ebook, audiobook, graphic novels, and comics).
- Completed logs must be submitted to the Upper Sandusky Community Library by June 8, 2024 for verification.
- Readers who have completed the Eight-Point-Three Challenge will receive an invitation to the 100 Book Club recognition event where they will receive a 100 Book Club t-shirt and an award.
